PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

As required by the Associations Incorporation Act (2015), When you join this Club you will be asked for your name, address and phone/email details. This information will be recorded by the Club and used in the following ways:

1. The Club keeps a register of its members, so that it can communicate with them about Club business.
2. Your name, phone number or email may be shared to other members, to enable members to communicate with each other.
3. The Club is a member of the West Australian Photographic Federation Inc and your personal information is provided to them so that WAPF can communicate with you about photography matters. That communication will usually take the form of the WAPF Event Adviser newsletter.
4. The club may upload to club websites images produced by you in club competitions for judging or for viewing by club members. Members of the public may view these web sites.

The Club will not otherwise use the information without your consent, and will endeavour to safeguard the security of the information. By joining the Club, you will be taken to have consented to the above policy.
